

The layers differ in what they may observe, not only in cost — and that is what decides the outcome.

A successful indirect injection emits a syntactically ordinary call, so L1 and L2 have nothing to inspect. Lp recovers the signal at L1 cost by asking which turn authorised the call.